

On the Face of It.

It would seem that our low prices must mean clothing of correspondingly low quality. Just come and examine our stock and see how greatly in error that idea is. We are offering finest suits at prices that will never be duplicated. It is up to you to take advantage of this opportunity.

Attend Convention.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 17.—West Virginia has quite a large delegation here attending the national convention of the Daughters of the American Revolution. While there is a spirited contest between the different factions in the order, West Virginia seems to be playing a very quiet part in the convention. The West Virginia delegates have taken no active part in any of the contests and have not achieved any of the notoriety which some of the women who are attending the convention have attained.

In the delegation from West Virginia who are attending the national convention of the order are Mrs. George DeBolt, of Fairmont, state regent; Miss Sue Kersley Watson, daughter of J. E. Watson, of Fairmont, who has been designated as one of the official pages for the convention; Mrs. C. H. Smoot, and Mrs. Waitman H. Conaway, of Fairmont; Mrs. H. H. Moss, of Parkersburg; Mrs. C. W. Heayner and Mrs. George B. Edmiston, of Buckhannon; Mrs. W. G. Baldwin, of Bluefield; Mrs. S. A. Stone and Mrs. W. Brent Maxwell, of Clarksburg; Mrs. H. G. Kump, of Jenkins; Mrs. William Sibley, of Morgantown; Mrs. Lynn Brannon, Mrs. E. G. Warren, Mrs. Prudence McClelland, Mrs. Holt and Mrs. Davidson, of Weston.

Mrs. Conaway, a delegate from Fairmont gave an informal tea Tuesday afternoon in honor of the West Virginia delegation. All the members of the delegation as enumerated above were invited to be present and in addition Mrs. Conaway's guest list included Mrs. C. W. Watson and Miss Mary Watson Sipe, of Fairmont, and Mrs. T. S. Cragg, wife of Representative Cragg, of Waynesburg, Pa. Mrs. Conaway entertained here guests at the apartments she is occupying temporarily in the Cecil apartment house. This was probably the most elaborate entertainment which will be given during the convention in honor of the West Virginia delegation.

Oratorical Contest.

A matrons' silver medal oratorical contest under the auspices of the Shinnston Woman's Christian Temperance Union will be held Thursday night at 8 o'clock in the Baptist church at Shinnston. The following program is announced:

Song—"Make the Map all White," choir.
"Contest Welcome Song"—The contestants.
Scripture reading—The Rev. L. B. Douglas.
Prayer—The Rev. Roy McCuskey.
Song—"Happy Children," choir.
Recitation No. 1—"Idolatry Ancient and Modern."

NOTICE OF TRUSTEE'S SALE OF REAL ESTATE.

By virtue of two deeds of trust executed to the undersigned, John Bassel, trustee, by Ella P. Thompson and Charles F. Thompson, her husband, the first thereof dated on the 4th day of August, 1902, and recorded in the Clerk's office of the County Court of Harrison County, West Virginia, in Trust Deed Book No. "T," page 93, to secure the payment of a certain negotiable promissory note for Thirty-five Hundred ($3500) Dollars, fully mentioned and described therein, and the second of said deeds of trust dated on the 17th day of November, 1904, and of record in said office in Trust Deed Book No. "V," page 318, to secure the payment of a certain negotiable promissory note for One Thousand ($1000) Dollars, fully mentioned and described therein, and default having been made in the payment of both of said notes, and being required so to do by the Lloyds Savings & Trust Company, the assignee and owner of both of said negotiable promissory notes, I, John Bassel, Trustee, will, on SATURDAY, THE 11th DAY OF MAY, 1912, at one o'clock p. m., at the front door of the Court House of said Harrison County, West Virginia, proceed to sell, at public auction, to the highest bidder, the property conveyed by said deeds of trust. Said real estate lying and being in the City of Clarksburg, in Harrison County, West Virginia, at the junction of Sycamore and Locust streets, and having a frontage of Eighty feet on said Sycamore street and a frontage of about One Hundred and Thirty-three feet on said Locust street, and on said real estate is situate a two story brick dwelling house and also a two-story apartment house. Said real estate is the same that was granted to the said Ella P. Thompson by Richard T. Lowndes by deed dated May 6, 1893, and of record in said office in Deed Book No. 88, page 322.

TERMS OF SALE:—One-third cash on day of sale; one-third in one year; and one-third in two years, taking from the purchaser notes bearing interest from the date of sale with good security for the deferred payments, and retaining a lien upon said real estate as a further security therefor. Given under my hand this 15th day of April, 1912.

JOHN BASSEL, Trustee.

HONEST STATEMENT OF WELL KNOWN CITIZEN

An advertisement of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, which I saw in the St. Albans Messenger some time ago, induced me to give your remedy a fair trial. I was then suffering from terrible pains in the small of my back. The pain was usually greatest during the morning, and often when I attempted to arise from my bed to go to work, I found I could not do so without the assistance of some member of my family. I am very grateful for the good your great remedy has done for me.

I thought I would have to use much more Swamp-Root than I did, in order to get well, but am absolutely cured of my kidney trouble and now without the slightest pain, after using only seven bottles. Was cured about six months ago, and though I do heavy work in the shop where I have been employed for the past forty-four years, have had no re-occurrence of the trouble or pain in the slightest degree.

I am doubly thankful for this, and while now an old man, I again feel the strength of my youth, thanks to Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root. Many others also use it to as good advantage as I have.

Very truly yours,

JOHN FRAZIER,
40 Edward St., St. Albans, Vt.

Franklin County, ss.

At the city of St. Albans in said county, on this 20th day of July, personally before a Notary Public, within and for said county, John Frazier, whose mark I hereby witness with W. E. Powers well known to me as a reputable citizen of this community for the past thirty years and fully entitled to credit and made oath that the foregoing affidavit by him signed is true and correct.

JOHN G. KEENAN,
Notary Public.

CLARKSBURG ABLAZE !!

Watch one of Clarksburg's newspapers for the announcement of the most wonderful sale of Men's and Women's Clothing, Shoes, Hats, Furnishings, Millinery, etc., that has ever been held in this city.

The entire stock of dozens of different manufacturers have been purchased by Hamburger and is being hurried through the process of checking, arranging and remarking. Watch daily papers for exact date when the sale will take place.

The merchandise is all fresh, clean and up-to-date stock, and will be up for public selling in the greatest bargain carousal ever experienced by the shrewdest bargain judges in West Virginia. The stocks are of such wonderful magnitude that we must ask your indulgence for a few days for later announcements, but it is worth while waiting for real wonders to delight the masses.

Store is now being gone over by experts in sorting out and getting ready for the greatest merchandise sensation of modern times.
